NEW TRADITIONS

Children's Program Volunteer

New Traditions is an outpatient chemical dependency treatment program for women. Our mission is to break the cycle of addiction by providing evidence-based treatment that focuses on reconnecting women with themselves, their families and their community. We provide on-site childcare for our clients and currently have a need for volunteer help in the Children's Program classroom.

Volunteer Expectations:
:: provide strengths based and self-esteem building care
:: rock and feed infants
:: play and model positive behavior with toddlers and preschool aged children

Specific Qualifications:
:: Must be motivated to work with infants, toddlers and preschool aged children
:: Pass background screening through Washington State Patrol
:: Current TB screening
:: Be free from misuse of alcohol or drugs for at least 5 years
